

Paparimu Primary School

U1 Principal

Roll 40 students, starting Term 2, 2022

In this Teaching Principal position, there will be 0.4 release, plus additional days to support the PLD of our new leader. The new Principal will be expected to understand and respect our journey over the past decade and build on our many successes going forward.

Paparimu School – a full primary with 2 classrooms and approximately 40 students is situated in Paparimu beneath the Hunua Ranges, handy to Papakura, Pukekohe and Bombay.

Our wonderful Principal of the past eight years is heading off on a new adventure, leaving a long legacy for the new principal to further build and grow.

Paparimu School is a vibrant semi-rural school that has celebrated its rural heritage since 1899. Our new Principal should be a community minded person willing to be involved with community activities including AG Days.

There is a “small school” culture that the staff and community are proud of, and the new Principal would be expected to support this (see www.paparimu.school.nz.)

Our new Principal will be a:

- Effective Class Teacher and a student - centred school leader.
- Visible, approachable, engaged and available leader with great relationship skills and resilience
- Fantastic communicator and collaborator with stakeholders.
